El Paso, Texas, Jan. 2, 1912.

To the People of the Southwest:

Ladies and Gentlemen:--

It is with pleasure that we publish the following letter which we received unsolicited some days since:

Messrs. Globe Mills,
City of El Paso.

Dear Sirs:--

I am pleased to be in receipt of your interesting Circular of the 15th, and in response beg to say I am wholly in sympathy with your enterprise, and congratulate you on your brilliant success. The goods you are putting on the market are not excelled anywhere. I have not used any other brand of flour since yours has been available, and shall not.

Your sentiments of mutual protection and helpfulness, are the basis of success and progress in any community and our little young but athletic City is no exception.

Respectfully and kindly,

(Signed) Mrs. M. A. McHatton.

1108 San Antonio St.

The above letter tells the story, for, after all, the co-operation of an entire community for the best interests of that community makes the City great. Quality, service, and fair treatment can mean nothing if not a healthy increase in the extent of sales.

Total sales December 1910 . . . $55,125.79

Total sales December 1911 . . . 67,652.32

Just 22-1/2% increase. We will continue to do our part in keeping up the quality and service and we would certainly appreciate the continued co-operation of this Southwestern section in making its enterprises decided successes.

Yours very truly,

EL PASO GRAIN AND MILLING CO.

By Claiborne Adams, Manager.

P. S.--Use Globe Mills Flour and help the Southwest grow. In what other section are you interested?

A WORLD OF GOOD

The Painful Experience of Mrs. Marvin, and How
She Found Help
by Herself.

Sheldon, S. C.--"For more than three years," says Mrs. J. B. Marvin, of this place, "I suffered with womanly troubles, and none of the doctors that treated me could do me any good. I also had pains in my left side up to my head at times I could hardly get up. Finally I tried Cardui, and soon I began to feel better. I took only a few bottles, but now I am perfectly well, and able to do anything. Cardui has done me a world of good. It certainly cured me of the trouble I had, and I am getting along nicely. I have recommended the remedy to other sufferers, and they have all been benefited by it. I will always keep Cardui in my home for use in time of need." Cardui is a mild and effective tonic for women, that has been found, by actual use, during more than fifty years, to quickly relieve the ailments to which all women are peculiarly liable. The prompt and satisfactory action of this well-known woman's remedy is due to its gentle, building action, on the womanly constitution. Cardui has helped thousands of others, and that is a good reason why it will help you, too. Please try it.

HANGERTON AT THE RACETRACK FINED

One Fined $25. Another $50;
Still Another Is Under Arrest.

L. Holbrook, who is employed as a rubber of horses at the Juarez race track, was fined $25 in police court Saturday afternoon on a charge of vagrancy. Tom McGee, a companion, was fined $50 on the same charge. The vagrancy charge arose from the theft of $1.50 from the cash drawer in the office of the El Paso rooming house on San Antonio Friday night. These men had been stopping at the house and were arrested Saturday morning. They denied taking the money.

Had "Expert Information."
Charlie Henderson is held at the city jail in default of $400 bond on a charge of vagrancy. It is charged that Henderson has been selling "scientific information" on the races. He had letters, it is charged, which he is alleged to have said were received from clients in the east to whom he sold information on the races at Juarez. These letters, it is said, were shown local people, to whom he tried to sell his "information." One man is said to have bit to the extent of $150. He was a traveling man who failed to give his name, but he found that Henderson was planning to get a friend of his interested in the race game and he reported the matter to the police.

GAVE HIS MONEY TO FAKE OFFICER

Trick Is Worked Twice on Green Mexicans--Two
Saturday Holdups.

Tiburcio Ramirez, a Mexican laborer, reported to the police Sunday morning that he had been robbed of $14, American money, and $10 Mexican money, by a man who represented himself to be a policeman and who gave him the name of Juan Garcia.

Ramirez came to El Paso Saturday night from Colorado, where he had been working on a section gang. In Juarez he met a Mexican friend who escorted him to El Paso and tried to sell him a pocketknife for the price of a drink. Ramirez suggested that they take a drink together. They did and then visited several other saloons.

Then his companion induced him to take a walk down South Santa Fe street. They met a man who showed a badge, represented himself to be a policeman. He took Ramirez's money and told him to call for it at the police station Sunday morning.

He called at the station but there was no money there for him. This is the second time within a week that the same game has been played on ignorant Mexicans.
